

THE TALLAHASSEE

Bach Parley
STRING ACADEMY

Information & Policies

Faculty

Valerie Arsenault, violin & viola

Miriam Barfield, violin & viola

Caroline Holden, violin

Zlatina Staykova, cello

Location

Lessons are held at St. John's Episcopal Church, located at 211 North Monroe Street. Students should enter the church through the Calhoun Street entrance and go upstairs to the Elementary Sunday School rooms. Parking is available at the St. John's Bookstore and along Call and Calhoun Streets. (See detailed directions on separate map.)

Private Instruction

The Bach Parley String Academy offers lessons for 30, 45, or 60 minute sessions for students wishing to study the violin, viola or cello. The lesson time and length will be mutually agreed upon by the student (or parents) and the teacher. Our faculty are professional musicians who hold advanced degrees in music and perform regularly in the Tallahassee area and beyond. Students may request a teacher at registration.

Group and Master Classes

Students enrolled in private lessons will be able to attend group classes. Master classes are open to the public.

Fees & Payments

An annual registration fee of $35 is due with the first tuition payment.

Scholarships are available for qualifying students.

Music books, supplies, and instruments are not covered by tuition.

Tuition for Fall Lessons is divided into four equal installments or one full semester payment. Payments are due by the first private lesson of each month, August/September combined, October, November, and December. ($10 fee for late payments)

Payments may be made by cash or check (made out to "Tallahassee Bach Parley").

Please see separate document current semester lesson rates (Fall 2016 Lessons Fees)

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all lessons. No make-up lessons will be given for a lesson missed by the student. Lessons missed by the teacher will be either rescheduled or refunded.

Lesson Preparation

Students should be prepared for lessons and practice at home in accordance with their teacher's instructions. Teachers generally expect daily practice, and young students should practice with parental supervision.

Expectation of Parents/Guardians

Parents are encouraged to attend lessons and help their child with daily practice.
